Dear students!

This morning the federal chancellor of Germany urgently appealed to all citizens to cancel any and all events, including private ones, that are not of absolute and imperative necessity. For this reason, the University, upon consultation with the Hamburg Ministry of Science, Research and Equalities (BWFG), has amended the regulations sent out yesterday, 13 March 2020, as follows:

In effect until 20 April 2020, all types of examinations at Universität Hamburg are prohibited and to be cancelled.

University management will work to find a suitable substitute or alternatives to examinations at the appropriate time. University management assumes that this decision will not result in disadvantages for students. Should you have any academic questions not addressed by this letter, please contact the academic office (Studienbüro) in your faculty.

I hope all of you stay healthy – this measure is designed to contribute to your good health.

Best regards,

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Dieter Lenzen
