As a University of Excellence, Universität Hamburg is one of the strongest research universities in Germany. As a flagship university in the greater Hamburg region, it nurtures innovative, cooperative contacts to partners within and outside academia. It also provides and promotes sustainable education, knowledge, and knowledge exchange locally, nationally, and internationally.

As a University for sustainability, we put human resources development and especially the development and advancement of our early career researchers at the fore of our strategic endeavors. By strengthening the tenure-track professorship, Universität Hamburg has introduced a specific career opportunity for early career researchers. Junior professorships are aimed at researchers in the early stages of their career, within four years after completion of doctoral studies.

Due to the success of the tenure-track program run by the Ministry for Education and Research and to strengthen the Climate, Earth and Environment core research area and the emerging field Health Economics, Universität Hamburg invites applications for the following tenure-track professorship:

The Faculty of Business Administration invites applications for a

W1 JUNIOR PROFESSORSHIP LEADING TO A W2 TENURE TRACK (TENURE-TRACK PROFESSORSHIP) FOR BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION WITH A FOCUS ON SUSTAINABLE LOGISTICS AND MOBILITY

commencing on 1 October 2020, ref. JP 321.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in the field. The professorship focuses on the quantitative modeling and solving of planning and decision-making problems in logistics and transport systems. The ability to analyze decision-making behavior with regard to the establishment and operation of sustainable logistics systems in health care or the urban supply of goods is also desired. The position forms part of the Focus Field Operations and Supply Chain Management. Duties also include participation in collaborative research projects, particularly those in the University’s core research area Climate, Earth and Environment, the emerging field Health Economics, and the faculty clusters Logistics and Digital Services, and Marketing and Communication.
In their application, applicants are expected to indicate to which of the University’s core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives (https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/forschung/forschungsprofil/forschungsschwerpunkte.html) their research can best be assigned.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

REQUIREMENTS:
Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 18 HmbHG.

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA:
Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

Non-German-speaking post holders are expected to acquire the language skills necessary to teach in German (Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) within two years of commencing employment providing they do not have the requisite skills when starting.

Junior professors have academic autonomy in their research and teaching. Applicants’ subject interests are expected to relate to topics in the Focus Field Operations and Supply Chain Management.

A tenure-track evaluation will be conducted during the second phase of the junior professorship in order to determine whether requirements for appointment to a W2 professorship have been met. Section 15 HmbHG applies. If the evaluation is positive, the candidate will be offered a tenured W2 professorship. The regulations prohibiting internal appointments also apply to this junior professorship.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Suitable disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status with comparable qualifications, abilities, and experience receive preference in the application process.
