

Universität Hamburg
DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG

As a University of Excellence, Universität Hamburg is one of the strongest research universities in Germany. As a flagship university in the greater Hamburg region, it nurtures innovative, cooperative contacts to partners within and outside academia. It also provides and promotes sustainable education, knowledge, and knowledge exchange locally, nationally, and internationally.

Junior professorships are aimed at researchers in the early stages of their career, within four years after completion of doctoral studies.

The Faculty of Humanities invites applications for a

JUNIOR PROFESSORSHIP (W1) FOR BRITISH LITERATURE AND CULTURE

commencing on 1 October 2021, ref. no. JP 324

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in the field and must be recognized for their research in the field of British literature and culture.

In their application, applicants are expected to indicate to which of the University's core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives (<https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/forschung/forschungsprofil/forschungsschwerpunkte.html>) their research can best be assigned. Duties include working in one or more of the core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives; the applicants' subject interests are expected to relate to Violence and Security, a University profile initiative.

The successful candidate is expected to participate actively in the instruction of students pursuing a teaching degree in the respective discipline.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

REQUIREMENTS:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 18 HmbHG.

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

Non-German speaking post holders are expected to acquire the language skills necessary to teach in German (Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) within two years of commencing employment.

Junior professors have academic autonomy in their research and teaching.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Suitable disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status with comparable qualifications, abilities, and experience receive preference in the application process.

The application deadline is 29 October 2020. Please submit your application with your CV, list of publications, teaching experience, successful external funding record, copies of certification and documents, teaching and research plans, additional evidence of skills and experience, such as presentations, posters, significant roles held in organizations, etc., and the reference number JP 324, preferably by email in a single PDF file, to: Bewerbungen@uni-hamburg.de or per post to:
