As a University of Excellence, Universität Hamburg is one of the strongest research universities in Germany. As a flagship university in the greater Hamburg region, it nurtures innovative, cooperative contacts to partners within and outside academia. It also provides and promotes sustainable education, knowledge, and knowledge exchange locally, nationally, and internationally.

The Faculty of Law invites applications for a

PROFESSORSHIP (W2/W3) FOR PUBLIC LAW, FINANCE AND TAXATION

commencing on 1 April 2021, ref. no. 2342.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The professorship will play a leading role in finance and taxation law in the faculty. Applicants are therefore expected to demonstrate a substantial interest in the core substantive and procedural aspects of finance and taxation law, particularly international finance and taxation law, and to teach public law. Candidates should also be able to link finance and taxation law to digitalization issues and collaborate with the Centre for Law in the Digital Transformation (ZeRdT) in the Faculty of Law. Duties also include participation in the University’s emerging field Law in Global Contexts and in the faculty research area Digitalization and the Law.

In their application, applicants are expected to indicate to which of the University’s core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives (https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/forschung/forschungsprofil/forschungsschwerpunkte.html) their research can best be assigned.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

REQUIREMENTS:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 15 HmbHG.

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.
Non-German speaking post holders are expected to acquire the language skills necessary to teach in German (Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) within two years of commencing employment providing they do not have the requisite skills when starting.

Following hearings to evaluate knowledge and expertise, management and human resources skills will be assessed by an assessment center.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Suitable disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status with comparable qualifications, abilities, and experience receive preference in the application process.

For further information, please contact Prof. Dr. Ivo Appel at 49 40 42838-5443 or ivo.appel@uni-hamburg.de.

The application deadline is 06 June 2020. Please submit your application with your CV, list of publications, teaching experience, successful external funding record, copies of certification and documents, three representative publications, teaching and research plans, additional evidence of skills and experience, such as presentations, posters, significant roles held in organizations, etc., and the reference number 2342, preferably by email in a single PDF file, to bewerbungen@uni-hamburg.de or per post to:
