commencing on 1 October 2020, ref. no. 2333.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Applicants are expected to head the Faculty of Law's international criminal law section on crime and crime control. Applicants are also expected to have a substantial interest in the core areas of substantive and procedural criminal law. Cooperation with the Center for Law in Digital Transformation (ZeRdiT) in the Faculty of Law is also desirable.

In their application, applicants are expected to indicate to which of the University's core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives (<https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/forschung/forschungsprofil/forschungsschwerpunkte.html>) their research can best be assigned. Duties include participation in one or more of the core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

REQUIREMENTS:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 15 HmbHG.

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

A non-German-speaking post holder is expected to acquire the language skills necessary to teach in German (Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) within two years of commencing employment providing they do not have the requisite skills when starting.

Following hearings to evaluate knowledge and expertise, selected candidates will be further assessed to ascertain their skills in the areas of management and human resources.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Suitable disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status with comparable qualifications, abilities, and experience receive preference in the application process.

The application deadline is 07 May 2020. Please submit your application with your CV, list of publications, teaching experience, successful external funding record, copies of certification and documents, three representative publications, teaching and research plans, additional evidence of skills and experience, such as presentations, posters, significant roles held in organizations, etc., and the reference number 2333, preferably by email in a single PDF file, to: Bewerbungen@uni-hamburg.de or per post to:
