As a University of Excellence, Universität Hamburg is one of the strongest research universities in Germany. As a flagship university in the greater Hamburg region, it nurtures innovative, cooperative contacts to partners within and outside academia. It also provides and promotes sustainable education, knowledge, and knowledge exchange locally, nationally, and internationally.

The Faculty of Humanities invites applications for a

PROFESSORSHIP (W2/W3) FOR THEOLOGY OF ALEVISM WITH A FOCUS ON MIGRATORY SOCIETY, RELIGIOUS PRACTICES, OR INTERRELIGIOSITY

commencing as soon as possible, ref. no. 2339.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in the field. Applicants should be internationally recognized experts in one or more of the following areas of Alevi theology: Alevi theology in migratory society, religious practices of Alevi theology, or interreligiosity. Duties include participation in the Early Modern World emerging field and/or the Thought and Religions profile initiative.

The post holder is also expected to be actively involved in educating teacher training students in the school subject of religion and in introducing, implementing, and assuring the quality of the Alevi Religion teacher training programme.

In their application, applicants are expected to indicate to which of the University’s core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives (https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/forschung/forschungsprofil/forschungsschwerpunkte.html) their research can best be assigned.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

REQUIREMENTS:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 15 HmbHG.

ADDITIONAL CRITERIA:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.
Non-German speaking post holders are expected to possess the language skills necessary to teach in German (Level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages).

Following the academic hearings, management and human resources skills will be evaluated in an assessment center.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Suitable disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status with comparable qualifications, abilities, and experience receive preference in the application process.

The application deadline is 30 July 2020. Please submit your application with your CV, list of publications, teaching experience, successful external funding record, copies of certification and documents, teaching and research plans, additional evidence of skills and experience, such as presentations, posters, significant roles held in organizations, etc. where available, and the reference number 2339, preferably by email in a single PDF file, to: bewerbungen@uni-hamburg.de or via post to:
