As a University of Excellence, Universität Hamburg is one of the strongest research universities in Germany. As a flagship university in the greater Hamburg region, it nurtures innovative, cooperative contacts to partners within and outside academia. It also provides and promotes sustainable education, knowledge, and knowledge exchange locally, nationally, and internationally.

The Faculty of Education invites applications for a commencing as soon as possible, ref. no. 2341.

PROFESSORSHIP (W2/W3) FOR DIDACTICS OF MATHEMATICS—SECONDARY LEVEL

RESPONSIBILITIES:

The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct research in all aspects of the field and should have proven qualifications and international recognition in the field of didactics of mathematics—secondary level. Duties also include participation in one or more of the faculty’s research areas, particularly in the Professionalization of Teachers and/or Literacy in Diversity Settings.

In their application, applicants are expected to indicate to which of the University’s core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives (https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/forschung/forschungsprofil/forschungsschwerpunkte.html) their research can best be assigned. Duties include working in one or more of the core research areas, emerging fields, or profile initiatives.

Duties include active participation in the subject-specific education of teacher training students (in particular teacher training for secondary levels I and II, as well as in teacher training in vocational education) and cooperation with the Department of Mathematics.

Section 12 subsection 7 sentence 2 of the Hamburg higher education act (Hamburgisches Hochschulgesetz, HmbHG) applies.

REQUIREMENTS:

Academic qualifications and additional requirements as specified in Section 15 HmbHG.
ADDITIONAL CRITERIA:

Applicants are expected to have international research experience as well as a successful track record in acquiring external funding and carrying out externally funded projects. The University places particular emphasis on the quality of teaching and therefore requests that applicants provide details of their teaching experience and objectives.

The professorship covers educational and subject-related didactic tasks in teacher training. Therefore, we expect subject-specific teaching experience in the area of focus, three years of school-teaching experience, or other relevant practical experience.

Following hearings to evaluate knowledge and expertise, management and human resources skills will be assessed by an assessment center.

In accordance with Section 14 subsection 3 sentence 3 HmbHG, Universität Hamburg seeks to increase the proportion of women in teaching and research and encourages female academics to apply.

Suitable disabled candidates or applicants with equivalent status with comparable qualifications, abilities, and experience receive preference in the application process.

Interviews are scheduled to take place in September 2020.

For more information, please contact Prof. Dr. Günter Krauthausen at +49 40 42838-3704 or krauthausen@uni-hamburg.de.

The application deadline is 30 July 2020.
