Equal Opportunity Fund 2021 – Call for Applications

The Fund aims to provide funding for projects relating to structural and/or conceptual innovations and to help Universität Hamburg attain its goal of equal opportunity.

The following projects and activities are eligible for funding:

- Projects relating to gender, diversity, and combining family and career
- Completion scholarships for female researchers to complete their doctoral dissertation or Habilitation
- Measures to facilitate the reconciliation of career and family both for individual researchers as well as to make the University more family-friendly as a whole

Applications will be accepted from all members of Universität Hamburg (excluding UKE). Applications from technical, library, and administrative employees are only permitted on behalf of academic staff.

Submit applications until 31 March 2021 to
