Herbstwald genießen – eine Pilzwanderung Enjoy the Autumn Forest – Mushroom Picking

Der Wald ist im Herbst besonders schön: frische Luft, bunte Blätter, milde Sonne. Ein Spaziergang in der Natur hält fit und macht den Kopf frei. Wir machen aus unserer Herbst-Aktion allerdings noch mehr: Zusammen mit dem professionellen Pilzfürer Ingo Hartung gehen wir in einen Kiefernwald und suchen essbare Pilze, sammeln unterwegs einige Pflanzen für Teeaufgüsse und besprechen interessante Rezepte aus Waldpflanzen. Außerdem tauschen wir unsere interkulturellen Erfahrungen und Tipps zum Thema aus. Für ein kleines Picknick ist gesorgt! Bitte bringt nach Möglichkeit eine Thermoskanne mit einem Heißgetränk und einen Korb oder eine Stofftasche für die Pilze mit. Denkt auch an robuste Schuhe, warme Kleidung und eine Windjacke.

In fall, the woods are especially beautiful – full of fresh air, colorful leaves, and mild sun. A nature walk keeps your body in shape and your head clear. But we want to do a bit more with this autumn activity: We want to accompany the professional mushroom picker Ingo Hartung through a pine forest on the search for edible mushrooms. We will also collect some plants to brew tea and discuss savory recipes using forest plants. Finally, we will exchange thoughts about our own experiences. This outing includes a small picnic!

If you can, please bring a thermos with a hot drink and a basket or cotton bag for your mushrooms. And don't forget to wear sturdy shoes, warm clothes, and a windbreaker.

Ägyptische Küche Egyptian Cuisine

Kochst du genauso gerne wie wir? Zusammen macht Kochen sogar noch mehr Spaß! Wenn du dich zudem noch für die interkulturelle Küche interessierst, bist du bei dieser Veranstaltung genau richtig. Typisch für die ägyptische Küche sind Gerichte wie Ful Medames (ein Bohnengericht), Koshari (eine Speise aus Linsen, Reis und Nudeln), Molokheyya (gehacktes Gemüse mit einer Knoblauch- und Koriander-Soße) und Falafel. Diese Köstlichkeiten möchten wir mit euch zusammen kochen und freuen uns darauf, sie danach gemeinsam mit euch zu probieren.

Do you like to cook as much as we do? Cooking together is even more fun! And if you are interested in ethnic cuisine, then this is the activity for you! Typical Egyptian cuisine includes dishes such as ful medames (a bean dish), kusahri (a dish of lentils, rice, and noodles), mulukhiyi (diced vegetables with garlic-coriander sauce), and falafel. We would like to prepare and enjoy these delicacies with you.

Schokolade selbst gemacht Make Your Own Chocolate

Weihnachten ist die Zeit der Wunder! An diesem Tag möchten wir mit euch zusammen ein eigenes, süßes Weihnachtswunder zaubern. Diese Veranstaltung bietet die Möglichkeit, eure Kreativität beim „Schokolademachen“ mit eigenen Händen zu entfalten. Selbst gemachte Schokolade ist auch eine tolle Idee für ein Geschenk an Freunde und Verwandte! Wir lernen die Grundzutaten für Schokolade kennen und probieren die unterschiedlichsten Rezeptvariationen aus. Schokolade mit Honig, mit Früchten, Nüssen, Kaffeebohnen, Kondensmilch oder sogar mit Kräutern? Eure Fantasie ist gefragt! Bringt gerne die Zutaten mit, die eure Schokolade enthalten soll. Bei der Herstellung sprechen wir auch über einige unerwartete und interessante Ideen aus anderen Kulturen und versuchen, sie zu verwirklichen. Wie wäre es zum Beispiel mit ukrainischer Schokolade mit Speck? Freut euch außerdem auf selbst gemachte Trinkschokolade!

Christmas is a time of miracles! Join us in creating our own sweet Christmas miracle. This is a chance to get creative by making chocolate with your own two hands. Homemade chocolate is also a great gift for family and friends. We will learn about the basic ingredients of chocolate and try various recipes. Chocolate with honey, fruits, nuts, coffee beans, condensed milk, or even with herbs ... use your imagination! Please bring the ingredients you would like to put in your chocolate. While we make our chocolate, we will also talk about and try to make surprising and interesting concoctions from other cultures. For example, how would you like to try some Ukrainian chocolate with bacon? You can also make your own cocoa!
