Residence permit – Am I allowed to study abroad?

Yes!

- If you plan to take part in a study-abroad program, please let your local immigration authority know about your stay outside of Germany.
- You will have to make sure your residence permit is valid until after your return to Germany.
Residence permit – Am I allowed to change my subject?

Yes!

- You need to inform your local immigration authority.
- Change of subject usually no problem during the first three to four semesters.
- After this time, the immigration authorities evaluate each case individually (statement by university might be requested; can the new program be finished within 10 years?)
Residence permit – typical pitfalls

- Renew your residence permit before it expires
- Proof of financial resources necessary (can be mix of savings and job or scholarship => 934 € / month)
- Inform your Immigration Authority (Ausländerbehörde) of any changes in your student status (change of study program, graduation)
- You are allowed to work 140 full days or 280 half days per year => if you would like to work self-employed = „selbstständig“, you need the permission by the immigration authority.
Residence permit – typical pitfalls

- You are allowed to leave Germany for six months
  => if you do not return in time, your residence permit will expire

- If you would like to take part in a study-abroad program, inform your immigration authority about your plans

- Limitation of ten years for Bachelor`s and Master`s degree

- After graduation, you can apply for a job-seeking visa (for up to 18 months)
