WHAT IS THE TOEFL?

The TOEFL iBT (internet-based test) is a standardized, internationally recognized proficiency test of English as a foreign language. It serves as official proof of your English language skills for the purposes of applying for study programs in English-speaking countries. It is also sometimes required for job or visa applications.

WHAT IS TESTED?

The TOEFL test consists of four parts: reading, listening, writing, and speaking:

Section 1: Reading

(35 Minutes, 20 Questions)

Reading from passages of text and answering questions about the content

Section 2: Listening

(36 Minutes, 28 Questions)

Listening to excerpts from lectures or class discussions and answering questions about the content

Section 3: Speaking

(16 Minutes, 4 Tasks)

Speaking into a microphone about familiar topics and discussion of provided audio or written material

Section 4: Writing

(29 Minutes, 2 Tasks)

Writing about familiar topics and a response to provided written and audio material

DETAILED INFORMATION FOR TEST TAKERS

ELS has very strict rules that need to be followed before, during, and after the test. Please be aware that any disruption of the test or violation of these rules has to be reported to ELS and might lead to the invalidation of your test results or your exclusion from the test.

BE ON TIME

Make sure to show up on time. It is recommended to be there 30 minutes earlier if possible. Do not exceed the time allotted for breaks.

PERSONAL POSSESSIONS

Nothing beside your ID card may be taken into the testing room. We will provide a possibility to store your personal items during the test.

Please be aware that food, beverages, and medications (unless required, such as inhalers) may not be taken into the testing room either and can only be accessed during breaks.

CHECK-IN AND ENTERING THE TESTING ROOM

At check-in, we need to make sure that you do not bring anything into the testing room. For this purpose, you will be scanned with a metal detector and you will be asked to turn your pockets inside out.

Each time you enter the testing room, you will have to present a valid ID, so make sure you have your ID with you at all times during the test. Your pockets will also have to be re-checked each time.

Before the test can start, we need to take a picture of you and you will have to sign a confidentiality statement.

TAKING NOTES

We will provide you with a pencil and 3 sheets of scratch paper to take notes. Should you need more paper, please first hand back the 3 sheets you have. You will be given 3 new ones.

These sheets of paper have to be handed back in one piece after the test. Do not tear the paper apart and don't attempt to take it out of the testing room.

No other paper or writing utensils are permitted.

Don't try to take any test content from the room in any form.

BREAKS

Up to two unscheduled breaks are possible when needed. Please let us know if you have to go out so we can stop the clock on your test, otherwise you will lose time that is planned in for the exercises.

During breaks, you might access food, beverages, and medication as well as pieces of clothing (e.g. if you are cold and need a sweater).

You may not access anything else, especially so-called "prohibited items" that could give you an advantage over other test takers. These include any electronic devices, including your smart or cell phones, notes or study materials, and similar items.

Do not leave the building during a break and do not discuss test questions or content with anyone.

BE AS QUIET AS POSSIBLE

Try to be as quiet as possible so as not to disturb other test takers.
